

KLAHANIE MURAL

25000 SE Klahanie Blvd
Issaquah, WA 98029

PROJECT BRIEF

This art was brought to the City thanks to the Sammamish Arts Commission. Residents provided feedback on the subject matter via social media, which Chuff used to create a piece inspired by the natural environment. The mural depicts flora and fauna like the blue heron, cherry blossoms, fir trees, bears, and mountains. Klahanie Park was chosen as the location for the artwork because it is a hub of activity and hosts our Shakespeare in the Park event each year.

ARTIST BIO- CODY ESP

Cody Esp is a Pacific Northwest-based muralist and art educator whose intuitive, nature-informed work transforms public and institutional spaces. Her murals appear throughout the region, including projects in West Seattle, Auburn, Sammamish, and Milton. In addition to civic commissions, she works with Seniors Creating Art, bringing creative practice into acute and long-term care settings to support wellbeing. Across all her work, she aims to show how intentional, beautiful art can soften daily challenges. She is currently expanding her public mural portfolio and illustrating a children's book.
